

TERMS OF REFERENCE FOR REMUNERATION COMMITTEE

1 Objective

The Remuneration Committee (the “Committee”) of Pecca Group Berhad (the “Company”) was formed by the Board of Directors of the Company. Its primary function, in line with the Malaysian Code on Corporate Governance 2012, is to recommend to the Board the remuneration package of Executive Directors and Non-Executive Directors of the Company and its subsidiaries (the “Group”) to attract, retain and motivate Directors.

2 Composition

- 2.1 The members of the Committee shall comprise wholly or mainly of Non-Executive Directors and number at least three (3) in total. Membership of the Committee shall be disclosed in the annual Directors’ Report of the Company.
- 2.2 The Chairman of the Committee shall be a Non-Executive Director appointed by the Board.
- 2.3 The members will be appointed by the Board and will remain members until there is a change.

3 Secretary

The Secretary of the Company shall be the secretary (the “Secretary”) of the Committee.

4 Attendance

The Group Managing Director may be invited to attend meetings to discuss the performance of Executive Directors and make proposals as necessary. Executive Directors should play no part in decisions on their own remuneration.

The Committee may appoint external consultants, if deemed expedient, to aid the Committee in the discharge of its duties.

5 Quorum and Meeting Procedures

Meetings shall be held at least once (1) a year. More meetings may be convened when the need arises. The quorum for a meeting of the Committee shall be at least two (2) members, present in person. A resolution in writing, signed by all the members of the Committee, shall be as effectual as if it has been passed at a meeting of the Committee duly convened and held. Any such resolution may consist of several documents in like form, each signed by one or more Committee members.

6 Advisers

The Committee is authorised by the Board to seek appropriate professional advice inside and outside the Group as and when it considers this necessary at the expense of the Company.

7 Duties

The duties of the Committee shall include the following:-

- (a) to recommend to the Board the appropriate remuneration packages for the Executive Directors, Non-Executive Directors and key management;
- (b) to formulate policies, procedures, guidelines and set criteria for remuneration packages for the Executive Directors, Non-Executive Directors and key management, which should be disclosed in the Annual Report where necessary;
- (c) to ensure that the Executive Directors, Non-Executive Directors and key management are fairly and appropriately remunerated according to the general market sentiments or conditions;
- (d) to ensure that all necessary actions are taken expediently by the Board to offer appropriate rewards, benefits, compensation and remuneration to ensure that the Company attracts and retains the individual Executive Directors, Non-Executive Directors and key management needed to run the Company successfully;
- (e) to ensure that all remuneration packages and benefits given to the Executive Directors, Non-Executive Directors and key management are in compliance with all laws, rules, requirements, regulations and guidelines set by the relevant authorities and the Board from time to time; and
- (f) to consider all other related matters as may be requested by the Board from time to time.

The level of remuneration should be aligned with the business strategy and long-term objectives of the Company, complexity of the Company's activities, and reflects the experience and level of responsibilities undertaken by the Executive Directors, Non-Executive Directors and key management.

The determination of remuneration packages of Executive Directors, Non-Executive Directors and key management should be a matter for the Board as a whole where the individuals concerned shall abstain from discussion of their own remuneration.

8 Minutes of meetings

The Secretary shall keep all minutes of meetings of the Committee and copies thereof shall be circulated to all members of the Board.
