

PRIVACY POLICY.

1. Introduction: At Pecca Leather Sdn Bhd (“Pecca”), safeguarding your privacy is of utmost importance to us. This policy aims to elucidate how we gather, utilize, and safeguard your personal information while utilizing our e-commerce platform.
2. Information Collection: When you make a purchase, we may gather personal details such as your name, email address, shipping address, and payment information. Additionally, we may collect information regarding your browsing behaviour, preferences on our website and legal compliance.
3. Use of Information: Your data is utilized to process orders, provide customer support, and enhance our services and consumer experience. We uphold a commitment not to disclose your information to third parties without obtaining your consent, unless required by law, the relevant governmental authority(ies) or by court order in Malaysia.
4. Data Security: To ensure the security of your data, we employ industry-standard measures, including encryption and secure server storage. However, we shall not be liable to you for any compromise of your personal data, including information such as bank account, credit / debit card, E-Wallet and any other payment methods (be it online / manual) when using our website or e-commerce platform.